TUESDAY, AUGUST 29 1738.

Nº 992.

Constantinople, July 10. N. S.

WE have News enough here, but little that can be depended on for certain. The Advices which are most current here are these. 'Tis said there are Ambassadors from Kouli Kan of Persia upon the Road, who are not only bringing the Ratification of the Treaty of Peace concluded last Year, but are also charg'd to offer his Persian Majesty's Mediation for an Accommodation with Russia: But this Report, whether true or false, cannot wean the Publick from their Opinion, that the Bashaw of Babylon has a secret Understanding with that Monarch. The Rebel of Atolia becomes every Day more haughty and more powerful, by being joined by the Inhabitants of the Country, who come from all Parts to list under his Standard.

'Tis said that the Turkish Flotilla has gained a considerable Advantage over that of Russia, but no publick Rejoicings have yet been made upon that Account; a Proof, almost amounting to a Certainty, especially in this Country, that if there has been an Advantage gain'd, 'tis not of very great Importance. Four Turkish Gallies, and several Ships, have been attacked at the Mouth of the Bosphorus by some Russian Ships from Oczakow, which took one of those Gallies, with some other Ships, and sank several others to the Bottom. All these Advices, whether well founded or not, have occasion'd a sort of Tumult, and the Populace assembling before the Seraglio, and in the publick Places, so obstinately demanded the Deposition of the Tefterdar, that it could not be refused; for 'twas foreseen at the Arrival of one or two more such ill Tidings, the Populace would not have been satisfy'd without the Deposing of the Kaimacan, and perhaps the Grand Vizier too.

Brussels, Aug. 25. N. S. Several rich Merchants of this City have formed a Design to establish, or rather to re-establish a Fishery Company, and some of them are come hither, and have presented a Scheme to her most Serene Highness, in which they set forth, that provided they may have certain Advantages, and the Protection of his Imperial Majesty, they shall not only be able to furnish the Austrian Netherlands with all manner of Fish, in the same Quantity as they are imported thither by Foreigners, and even cheaper, but that they will also pay his Majesty for his Grant, a more considerable Sum than what accrues to him at this Time from the Duty of Importation on Foreign Fish. As this Project has been very much relished at this Court, and Copies of it have been sent to Vienna, and to the Congress of Rastatt, no doubt but the Company which forms it, will obtain the Grant which it desires.

I am well assur'd, that the Person that offer'd the Gold Watch to Mr. Moore of Ipswich, is that notorious Villain that burnt the House and robb'd Mr. Edrich of Barton, he having been at Ipswich and swore to his Watch; after which he went to the Prison to see the Fellow, who had the Impudence to tell Mr. Edrich he did not know him, nor ever see him in his Life, tho' he was formerly his Servant, and when he went away from him committed a Rogue's Trick, as follows: He took of his Master Part of his Wages, and ask'd him to lend him Five Shillings more; his Master told him he had no Silver, and gave him a Guinea to get chang'd, which he never return'd, but went off.

Last Saturday at One o'Clock, William Gortz was executed upon the Castle Hill for Horse-stealing: He was a young Man of about 24 Years of Age, exceeding comely, and well proportion'd: He behav'd very decently at the Gallows, but with an uncommon Intrepidity: Just before he was turned off, he said, 'Good People, lewd Women have brought me to this; I lay no Blame on my Wife, and find no Fault with my Parents, for I take all upon myself: Let all young Men shun lewd Women, or they will bring them to the Gallows, as they have done me.' After he was cut down he was put in a Coffin, and convey'd from Place to Place, and on Tuesday Night was buried (as it is said) in Heigham Church-yard.

Ipswich, Aug. 25. Last Tuesday the famous Benjamin Holmes, a Travelling Teacher among the Quakers, held forth at Hadleigh, in a Field under a Walnut Tree, to a great Number of People. His Behaviour and Discourse was so well taken, that he had the Applause of all that heard him.

The same Night the Felons, 9 in Number, in our Gaol, attempted to make their Escape; they had procured jagg'd Knives like Saws, and two Gimblers, with which they began to take down some Boards, but being overheard, Mr. Keeble, the Keeper, soon secured them from any further Proceeding; mean while having set a Watch to guard the Outside of the Gaol, apprehended an Accomplice. One of the Fellows is the Person that is suspected of setting Fire to a New House in Barton-Turff in Norfolk, and then robbing the Old House of a Gold Watch, &c.

Bristol, Aug. 25. Last Thursday Morning Mr. Gold, a Ribband Weaver on Redcliff Hill, received an Incendiary Letter by the Post, threatening the Destruction of him, his Family and House, if he did not lay 5 l. under Captain Saunders's fine Tomb-stone in Redcliff Church-yard, by a Time limited therein.

Bath, Aug. 25. The City has been very much disturb'd within these few Day, by a vile Fellow, who pretended to inform against 15 Persons for retailing Spirituous Liquors; all of them appeared this Day before the Justices at Philips-Norton; but the Informer not appearing, they were all dismiss'd.

For the immediate Cure of BARRENNESS in WOMEN, tho' of many Years Continuance, and proceeding from what Cause soever, And also of

IMPOTENCY in MEN, however occasion'd, or of ever so long Standing,

The Famous and Inestimable

PROLIFICK ELIXIR,

The biggest, richest and most powerful Cordial in Nature, is recommended,

BEING the only true and infallible Cure

for BARRENNESS in Women and IMPOTENCY in Men in the Universe, and which it at once accomplishes without the least Trouble, even after all other Remedies have fail'd, as Thousands have experienced, and that by promoting the cheerful Curricule of the Blood, and Juices, raising all the Fluids from their languid, depressed State, to one more florid and sparkling, opening all Obstructions, fortifying the Nerves, encreasing the Animal Spirits, restoring a Juvenile Bloom, and evidently replenishing the crispy Fibres of the whole Habit, with a generous Warmth and balmy Moisture, and thereby invigorating it to such a Degree as not to be imagin'd, but by those who have experienced how exceedingly and sensibly it renovates, recruits, and powerfully strengthens all the Animal Faculties, and Generative Powers in both Sexes. It infuses a bright, lively Disposition, banishes Melancholy, and inspires Mirth and Gladness of Heart beyond Expression. A-bundance of Ladies, who for several Years were deemed incurably Barren, have after twice taking it, conceived and become Fruitful; and great Numbers of Gentlemen, who by fast living, or otherwise, had render'd themselves incapable of Procreation, have soon been enabled by it to propagate their Species, inasmuch, that very many illustrious Families, who, for want of Children, were almost inconsolable, are now blest with happy Issue, and are (under Providence) indebted to this Great Medicine for their Heirs. It rectifies all Disorders of the Stomach, creates an Appetite, procures a good Digestion, and in all Weakness of Body, or Decay of Constitution of any Kind, is a most infallible Restorative, and even keeps back the Effects of Old Age itself. It is to be taken but a few Drops at a Time, has a very fine Flavour, is pleasant to the Palate, Cordial to the Stomach, and can be had only at the Two Blue Posts in Haydon-Yard in the Minorities, at 5s. a Bottle, with Directions.
